2	My nephew who I had custody of was being held by gis grandmother. When I called 911, a police officer from Elmira explained that there was a minor incident. A car accident. He would not listen to me and let the grandmother go without regard to the situation. Officer Sackett heard my second call to 911, and my arguing over how I wanted an officer at my house, and he came and explained to the officer from Elmira the entire situation. He not only knew the background but he cared enough to listen and ensure the child was brought home safe.	12/30/2020 12:03 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Frequency of atrol	1/6/2021 4:03 PM
2	The one thing I know, and this might already be handled, but the way the local department handles investigations might need to be relooked. It needs to be more thorough and less based on a person's character, upstanding, etc.	1/6/2021 4:17 AM
3	All of my experiences with the Waverly Police have been positive. I've worked with them on several occasions in emergency situations within my neighborhood. They have always been quick to respond, very professional, and always keeping the safety of everyone in mind. All officers have always been very friendly with my family. My daughter is always excited to see them and gets a smile and a wave or a friendly hello. Keep up the great work!	1/2/2021 5:55 PM
4	I don't feel they need improvements..they do a good job	1/2/2021 5:48 PM
5	I'm not sure what they could improve on but making sure that there is good education on communication skills, including active listening and working with resources when necessary to get the individual to the right/correct level of care.	12/31/2020 7:00 PM
6	-Stricter enforcement of traffic laws -Put more information about what they do on their facebook page	12/31/2020 6:43 AM
